

1 Those words are equally hard of interpretation
2 and have been and will continue to be the subject of 3 court determination.

4 They are important words. They are engrained
5 in our Constitution and nobody would seriously consider 6 taking them out.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: You have one-quarter minute.

8 DELEGATE MARION: I urge the defeat of the amend-9 ment.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair recognizes Delegate
11 Hostetter for one minute.

12 DELEGATE HOSTETTER: I rise in support of the 13 amendment. Delegate Kiefer stated that this would in no 14 way change the situation one way or the other, but the 15 remark I would like to refer back to at this time was 16 one made by Delegate Willoner, and he stated this on two 17 different occasions during the controlled debate, and that 18 was that this provision, 5(B), would bring the present state
19 of the law up to the level of a Constitutional provision.

20 Now, what Delegate Willoner is saying is exact-
